To the Friends of Streatham Hill Theatre

I am sure that I speak on behalf of the Streatham Festival Committee when I write to say that we all thoroughly support the campaign to bring the Streatham Hill Theatre back as an arts and cultural asset into the heart of the Streatham community.

A sleeping 'Theatrical Giant' right in our midst, waiting to open its doors to welcome the public once again, to not only marvel at the magnificent space within, its wonderfully spectacular decor and detail, but also to be embraced by the colourful history and the many stories of the past.

The revived Streatham Hill Theatre will be able to bring a wider range of art and culture into our community in Streatham, enriching all our lives.

The Festival was fortunate to use areas of the theatre in 2013 and we would wholeheartedly wish nothing more than to be able to use the space as part of the Festival once more.

Please carry on supporting, pledging and volunteering. Streatham needs its Theatre back!!
